SEEKING PLACE TO QUARTER TROOPS

Certain That Virginia Soldiers Will Be Well Taken Care Of in Washington.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Washington, January 9.—It is understood here that Senator Martin and Congressman James Hay will have some definite announcement to make within the next few days regarding the housing of the Virginia troops who come to the Wilson and Marshall inaugurations.

When the House Committee on Buildings and Grounds made its report to the House within the next week or two, there is a strong probability that provision will be made for a Federal building at West Point. It will be remembered that not long ago a committee of citizens from that town came to Washington and took the matter up with Congressman Lamb.

Just what provision the House Committee on Rivers and Harbors intends to make relative to increasing the amount of $70,000, heretofore estimated as necessary for maintenance of the James River for the next fiscal year to $250,000 as recently suggested by Congressman Lamb, cannot be learned. Inasmuch, however, that the bill already has assumed large proportions and has run to the $400,000 mark, it is believed that the amount intended for the James River will be increased. Captain Lamb is hopeful of securing the increase.
